On 25th Sept. China Centre became the first MBS Worldwide Centre to be re-named and launched as The University of Manchester China Centre, by President and Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dame Nancy Rothwell. We are extremely grateful to our alumni as well as our partners and friends for supporting us since 2008.

The University of Manchester has been leading in technological innovation and academic research in the world. In 2016, we moved up the Academic Ranking of World Universities and QS World University Ranking. The UoM has long been committed to the strategic collaboration and sustainable development in China, as well as attached great importance to the Chinese students and alumni. The Establishment of the University of Manchester China Centre echoes this commitment. In future, the university will make every effort to further its multi-dimensional development on teaching, research, culture, education and commerce in China; strengthen the exchanges and collaborations with Chinese universities, research institutes and commercial partners; further the cultivation of diversified and internationalized talents – contributing to the wider Sino-UK relationships.

Running a marathon is as fun a lot like running a company ... For those who want to know how far you may go, it's never too late to start a jog. If you want to outrun yourself in your life or career, it's never too early to start training. For those who have run marathons, it's better to know that "pain is inevitable, suffering is optional".

The life in Manchester Law School was exciting and challenging. Manchester made me not only a transition to a new opportunity, to a new city, but also took me a further step up the career ladder. It allowed me to reach out a lot of people, look at a much broader range of career opportunities, make great friends and networks with global professionals.

For an inhouse legal counsel, MBS provides me not only the business knowledge and skills, but also the international business view with original thinking to the local legal job. It is still a continuous process after the graduation. The experience to organize a volunteer MBS legal club not only brings legal knowledge sharing to MBS students, but also provides myself a deep understanding of the interaction between Law and Business.

I really appreciated the MBS GMBA program that gave me original thinking and skills of running business. More importantly, it inspired me to start up my own business IFACILITYLINK last year, shifting my career path to an innovative entrepreneur rather than being employed in facility management field. It is a very challenging journey but going with my heart. I wish every alumnus choose better life, and free your heart!

I think being at Manchester was a perfect stepping stone between school and the international world. If I hadn't gone to Manchester I wouldn't have had the opportunity to meet the friends I did that led to me coming to China upon graduation and setting up the education business I still run nearly 14 years later!

I studied at the University of Manchester from 1995 until 1999 (with a year in Switzerland in 97/98), a time of Oasis, the Hacienda and when Manchester United were the best team in the country (and the world). These external factors were of course a key part of my decision to study in Manchester, together with the quality reputation, high standards of teaching and entrepreneurial spirit of the University. I wish you all the best in one of the best Universities and most vibrant cities in the world.
